

Announcement: Interim CEO Appointment

The Kings Regional Service Commission is pleased to announce the appointment of Hollis Bartlett as Interim Chief Executive Officer, effective September 29, 2025.

Mr. Bartlett will continue in his role as Chief Executive Officer of the Southwest Regional Service Commission while also providing interim leadership to the Kings RSC. In this capacity, he will work closely with staff, the trustee, and member local governments to ensure the continued delivery of services to our communities and to advance the Commission's established priorities.

With his extensive experience and proven leadership, Mr. Bartlett will help guide the Kings RSC through this transition period and support planning for the organization's long-term leadership structure.

The Kings Regional Service Commission also wishes to extend its sincere gratitude to Andrea Davis-Hourihan for her many years of dedicated service. We wish her every success in her future endeavors.
